Allied Diplomats Talk Plebiscite On 'Free Berlin'

LONDON (AP) — Some Allied diplomats today were reported in favor of challenging Nikita Khrushchev to a plebiscite in which West Berliners could accept or reject his proposal to make their city a demilitarized free city.

Qualified informants said under the proposal being suggested, if the 2,200,000 West Berliners rejected free-city status, Khrushchev would be obliged to dump his scheme and continue to abide by the existing four-power occupation agreements.

If the West Berliners accepted the Soviet Premier's proposals, then the Americans, British and French would be bound to withdraw their 10,000 troops from their sectors of the city.

The informants stressed that this was only one of several ideas being pondered. The Allied diplomats who favor some such proposal to Moscow said they are convinced:

1. That the Russians would not risk putting their proposals to the test of public opinion.

2. That in any vote the West Berliners would resoundingly reject the Soviet proposals.

Meanwhile in New York, the United Nations General Assembly moved toward its adjournment date of Dec. 12.

The 81-nation main Political debate on the Cyprus issue by midweek. That would leave the Assembly with only three main items to discuss — atomic radiation, Algeria and Hungary.

The Cyprus question appeared headed for a deadlock. The committee neared a vote on half a dozen rival resolutions. None appeared to have enough support to get the two-thirds majority needed for Assembly approval.

A compromise resolution entered Monday night by India and eight other nations called on Britain to continue negotiations to promote self-government for its crown colony. The British said the proposal was not acceptable, virtually dooming prospects for passage.

The radiation issue was expected to be disposed of quickly. Twelve nations represented on the U.N. Scientific Committee on Atomic Radiation have put in a resolution proposing that the agency continue its work. It was expected to be approved without serious opposition.

The Algerian discussion promised to be a heated but one-sided affair.

Girl, 17, Held For Shooting Her Parents

MAUSTON, Wis. (AP) — A finance company president and his wife were shot to death in their home Monday night. Dist. Atty. William Brady said today that their 17-year-old daughter, apprehended in the family car a few hours later, admitted killing her parents.

Thomas Dakin, 46, and his 43-year-old wife, Betty, were cut down by pistol fire. They were the parents of two girls, the other 11. Brady said that Jane Dakin would be taken before Juneau County Juvenile Judge William R. Curran on a delinquency petition. He declined to give any details of her statement.

The girl was taken into custody while driving toward Wisconsin Dells, about 20 miles from Mauston. She was returned to Mauston. Coroner Clarence Sorenson said Dakin was shot twice near the heart after he returned home from a Kiwanis Club meeting. His body was near that of his wife who lay at the bottom of a stairway in the living room. She had been shot four times in the head and chest. Sorenson said she had been the first to die.

Both were killed by bullets from a .22 caliber automatic pistol. The 11-year-old daughter, Mary, was with friends at a movie when the bodies of her parents were found.

Airline Strike Pressure Eases

Court Action Helps 2 Firms Keep Flying

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Court developments in New York City have eased pressure on two airlines involved in labor disputes. Talks aimed at ending strikes at two other lines continue today.

The strike moratoriums give breathing space to Pan American World Airways and American Airlines and keep their planes in the air. The struck carriers are Eastern Air Lines and Trans World Airlines.

The Transport Workers Union pledged in State Supreme Court Monday not to interfere with Pan American operations, pending the outcome of mediation over union demands. The line had accused the union of curtailing the amount of overtime its members could work.

About 8,000 Pan American employees, including 1,400 at the Air Force's Cape Canaveral, Fla., missile base, are demanding fewer working hours with no pay cuts. The contract expired at midnight.

American Airlines, the nation's largest in passenger miles flown annually, escaped a rupture in operations when Federal Dist. Judge Frederick vanPelt Bryan continued a ban on a strike by 1,500 members of the Air Line Pilots Assn. court argument continues today.

In Kansas City, negotiations in the 11-day-old TWA strike were recessed late Monday night still deadlocked over a seniority issue involving machinist foremen. Talks were scheduled to resume today.

At Miami, Fla., EAL officials and union leaders planned to meet again today. The line was struck last Nov. 24. A total of 5,383 mechanics and 550 members of the Flight Engineers International Assn. are out.

Ohioan Faces Accusation of Child Cruelty

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A Marietta, Ohio, man faces a hearing Wednesday on charges of cruel and unlawful punishment on a child he claims was given him last July.

Juvenile court authorities filed the charges against Donald Dean Wallace, 29, who was arrested for mistreating a 5-year-old boy. Wallace at first claimed he was the child's father. But Arthur E. Hutto, assistant state's attorney, said a New Orleans couple gave the boy to Wallace and a companion, Raymond Jacobson.

Wallace produced a birth certificate and a "bill of sale or lease" signed by Mrs. Donna Sloan as the boy's mother and Jacobson as witness.

The child was born at Orange City Hospital, Tex., and Mrs. Sloan wrote over her signature that she "gave the boy to Wallace for one week."

The boy's parents, who live in a trailer with two other children at New Orleans, said they surrendered the boy to Wallace and Jacobson last July, according to chief of detectives William McNamara of New Orleans.

Miami police uncovered the case when neighbors called them to the trailer park where Wallace and Jacobson lived with the child.

McElroy Urged To Fight for Defense Fund

New Mexico Solon Says Congress Sure To Back Request

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Neil H. McElroy was invited by Sen. Dennis Chavez (D-NM) today to put up a fight for a substantial increase in defense funds in the new budget.

Basic decisions on the size of the administration's military budget may be made at meetings of the National Security Council Wednesday and Thursday.

Chavez, who heads the Senate's Defense Appropriations subcommittee, said in an interview he understands McElroy wants more money for the military than President Eisenhower's fiscal advisers are willing to see spent.

"I'm on McElroy's side," Chavez said. "If he will fight for the funds he needs, he will find the majority of Congress behind him. We're going to vote every penny needed for national security."

In the past, Chavez's subcommittee generally has voted to increase defense spending above the total previously allowed by the House, which acts first on all money bills. In most cases the subcommittee's decisions have been upheld by the full Appropriations Committee, which will be controlled by a 2-1 margin by the Democrats in the new Congress.

McElroy has hinted that next year's military budget request may be a billion dollars higher than the current $40,800,000,000 level of defense outlays.

Eisenhower has been attempting to hold the total of defense and all other spending down to keep the new budget under an 80-billion dollar ceiling.

House Probe Planned in Knutson Case

WASHINGTON (AP)—A House committee has asked Minnesota authorities to preserve all ballots in the disputed election which brought defeat to Rep. Coya Knutson (D-Minn.).

The committee acted amid confusion over the status of a $200,000 suit filed by Mrs. Knutson's husband, Andy, against William Kjeldahl, Mrs. Knutson's top aide.

Last week, Kjeldahl made public a letter purportedly from Andy Knutson and saying that Knutson was dropping his suit alleging alienation of affections and slander. That letter also said Knutson had fired his Washington lawyer, Benedict F. Fitzgerald.

Monday, Fitzgerald said Knutson had no right to act personally in dropping his suit. The lawyer also said he has not had any notice from Knutson that he has been removed from the case.

But the U.S. District Court clerk's office said a memorandum signed by Knutson to dismiss the case was enough.

Mrs. Knutson declined to talk with newsmen, but a member of her office staff said the congresswoman was living with her husband. The aide said she did not know where they were staying.

Differences between the Knutsons became news last spring when Andy publicly appealed to his blonde wife to give up politics and return home. He is a hotel operator in Oklee, Minn.

Disregarding this appeal, Mrs. Knutson ran for a third term but was defeated narrowly by Republican Odin Langen.

Most Highways In Ohio Cleared, Open after Snow

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Most of the primary highways in Ohio are open and clear to traffic with exception of some slippery spots, the Ohio Department of Highways reported today.

The department's weather bulletin said roads are slippery in spots southwest of a line marked by Eaton, Circleville and Batavia, and also in the vicinity of Toledo, Bowling Green, Tiffin, Sandusky, Norwalk, Ashland and Elyria. There are a few slippery spots on highways northeast of a line marked by Jefferson, Akron, Millersburg and St. Clairsville.

All secondary roads are slippery in spots, the bulletin said, except southeast of a line marked by Woodsfield, Caldwell, McConnellsville, Logan, McArthur and Gallopis, which are icy and partly snow covered.

PROBERS SEEKING CAUSE OF TRAGIC SCHOOL FIRE

87 Pupils, 3 Nuns Perish in Chicago

CHICAGO (AP)—Grim investigators today shook off the shock of Chicago's worst school fire and strove to find the answer to this question:

"How did it happen and why?" The fire that flashed through Our Lady of the Angels School Monday shortly before closing time cost 90 lives—87 children and three nuns.

More than 85 youngsters remained in hospitals. It was Chicago's most disastrous blaze since the Iroquois Theater holocaust in 1903 and the third worst school fire in the nation in 100 years.

The flames shot up in the two-story brick building like fire from a blowtorch. Heat and smoke trapped the victims on the upper floor of the north wing of the U-shaped structure.

Anxious Pupil Becomes Victim

CHICAGO (AP) — Margaret Chambers was forced to stay home from her fourth-grade classes at Our Lady of the Angels Catholic grade school Monday morning because she had a cold.

At noon, the 9-year-old pupil told her mother, Rose Chambers, she wanted to go to school in the afternoon. Reluctantly, her mother granted permission.

Margaret was one of the 87 pupils who perished in a fire which swept the school.

Twenty-four bodies were found in one room. Most of them were jammed near windows. Firemen, sickened by the spectacle, said a few of the children were still at their desks, apparently paralyzed by fear and panic.

Others leaped from windows. The little survivors suffered from burns, bones broken in falls and the shock of the horror they beheld.

Fire Commissioner Robert J. Quinn considered the possibility of arson. That possibility was raised by the swift spread of the blaze.

"It was the worst thing I have ever seen or ever will see," he said.

Quinn also said the black smoke indicated an oil-type fire.

The fire originated in the northeast corner of the school at 3808 W. Iowa St. on the Northwest Side. Investigators pinpointed the place of origin below the street level.

A 30-gallon can was found in a stairwell in that section of the Iowa Doctor Named as Top U.S. Physician

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — An Iowa doctor who delivered 2,000 babies in their own homes was chosen today as the nation's outstanding family physician of the year.

Dr. Lonnie A. Coffin, 68, Farmington, was awarded the honor by the House of Delegates of the American Medical Assn.

The award is given each year to the doctor who typifies the thousands of general practitioners throughout the country who have dedicated their lives to the practice of medicine and who have given exceptional service to their communities.

Dr. Coffin becomes the first Iowan to win the honor. Dr. Cecil W. Clark of Cameron, La., who won fame during Hurricane Audrey, was last year's winner.

Dr. Coffin terms himself "an ordinary country doctor."

He was instrumental in getting and developing Indian Lake, a 200-acre park which has made boating, fishing and picnicking available to the surrounding area.

The doctor bought basketball tournament tickets for high school students who couldn't pay their own way.

He also bought graduation clothes for students who couldn't afford them.

He donated stage settings for junior and senior plays at Farmington High School.

structure. It was taken to the police crime laboratory for careful examination.

Another possibility was that the fire sprang up in waste paper in the basement near that corner of the building.

Daniel O'Shea, 12, a pupil who carried the waste paper to the basement a few minutes before the fire started was questioned by police seeking to determine the cause of the disaster.

The boy said he left his seventh grade room with a basket of paper about 10 minutes before the fire began. He added that he dumped the paper in a container to be burned later by the janitor.

Sgt. Drew Brown, head of the police arson squad, said the waste paper was dumped in the boiler room about 15 feet from the stairwell where the fire was believed to have started.

But, if the fire started in the paper, how was it kindled?

Nobody came forward with an answer.

One theory was that a cigarette may have been discarded in the refuse.

Sgt. Brown found black smudges on the lower walls of the stairwell that indicated an oil-like substance had burned there.

He stated that no evidence of a touchoff had been found thus far.

Pope John XXIII sent to the Chicago Archdiocese a telegram of profound sorrow over the disaster in the Roman Catholic school.

Just 18 minutes was the difference between life and death for the 1,300 students and black-robed teachers in the school. The first box alarm was turned in at 2:42 p.m. The school let out at 3 p.m.

Within minutes the building turned into a wild, screaming inferno. Smoke and heat filled staircases and second-floor corridors so fast that normal exits were impassable.

School Fire Third Worst In 100 Years

CHICAGO (AP) — The fire that struck Our Lady of Angels School Monday was the third worst school fire in the nation in the last 100 years and the worst in Chicago in 55 years.

The greatest school disaster occurred March 18, 1937, when 294 died in a school explosion and fire in New London, Tex.

The other major school fire claimed 176 lives in the Collinwood School in Cleveland March 4, 1908.

The worst fire in Chicago took 602 lives Dec. 30, 1903, when the Iroquois Theater burned.

In June 5, 1946, 61 persons perished in a fire in the LaSalle Hotel, Chicago.

There have been 26 fires in this country in which as many as 50 persons died. Two were school fires. Only eight fires with such a loss of life have occurred in the last 20 years, none of them in schools.

Worst of these recent fires was the Cocoanut Grove Night Club blaze in Boston Nov. 28, 1942, in which 498 died.

Other fires with major losses of life in the last two decades are: Dec. 7, 1946 — 119 dead in Wine-coff Hotel fire, Atlanta, Ga.

Oct. 20, 1944 — 135 killed in Cleveland liquid gas explosion and fire.

July 6, 1944 — 168 dead in Ringling Brothers Barnum and Bailey Circus fire at Hartford, Conn.

April 23, 1940 — 198 killed in Negro dance hall fire at Natchez, Miss.

School Annexation Law Is Upset

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Common Pleas Judge Kenneth L. Sater has dealt a blow to Ohio's school annexation law.

He held that a constitutional provision on taxation overrides a law the State Board of Education has followed.

The decision ordered a 620-acre tract in two townships of Franklin County transferred to the Columbus School District. The city accepted the land for annexation in mid-1957.

Following such annexations, statute requires approval of the state board. Another section of state law bans such transfers if an "island" is created in the school district.

An eight-acre "island" in the Gahanna School District was created by the Columbus annexation.

bereaved relatives still trying to identify the bodies of schoolchildren who died in Monday's fire at Our Lady of the Angels Roman Catholic School.

Ninety sheet-covered bodies lay on stretchers in three rooms of the morgue basement. Some had been identified within hours after the fire.

Some fire-blackened bodies confronted in agony may never be identified.

Among white-clas nurses and morgue attendants could be seen the frocked figures of priests. Here was one, his arm around the shoulder of a weeping woman, trying to console her.

"It was the will of God," was heard in a low whisper from the priest. "Your daughter is an angel in heaven."

The woman wept unrestrainedly.

From the other side of the room came a shriek. A woman collapsed and immediately attendants ringed her, eased her into a chair and administered smelling salts.

Nearly stood a couple in their 30s. Pale, dry of tears, they fingered a rosary, their lips moving wordlessly. The man had said earlier his daughter was not reported in any of the half-dozen hospitals to which many of the children had been taken. The couple came to the morgue, but had not looked at any of the unidentified children.

They were praying she still might have only been injured, perhaps still in a hospital through some mixup in names.

Hovering among the parishioners was Father Joseph Ognibene. This 32-year-old priest, a native Chicagoan, came to Our Lady as the parish was known, in 1952. It was his first assignment after ordination.

He was "Father Joe" to everyone.

It was his daily routine to walk about the schoolyard and near the entrances during recess, the noon lunch period and as the children left the building at 3 p.m.

Monday, Father Ognibene met an old friend for lunch. They dined at the table. Then he noticed it would soon be time for his young parishioners to leave school for home.

"I was hurrying to the school in my car," he said. "I saw smoke coming from the upper windows and drove my car the wrong way up a one-way street. I parked the car and ran into the building."

"Some children were leaving the building in an orderly fire-drill manner. Others were running about, screaming. Then everything was ablaze."

"I tried . . . I wanted to . . . It was the will of God."

When the first bodies began arriving at the morgue, Father Joe was asked to make tentative identification. He knew the greatest force of the fire was concentrated in the section housing Rooms 207, 208, 209, 211 and 212.

Scores of these children he knew by name. All were his friends.

Yet, when he had to identify them by name, or grade he could only whisper: "I'm not sure of this little one. . . I think this one was in 209. . . This boy was . . . I'm not sure."

He pressed a thin, shaking hand to his temple. For a moment, it appeared that he might collapse. An attendant slipped a bottle of salts to the priest's nostrils and he straightened up, backing away from the pungent odor.

Then he walked among the bereaved relatives. He stopped, talked with a weeping father.

"It was the will of God, Stanley. Your daughter is now an angel in heaven."

But the U.S. District Court clerk's office said a memorandum signed by Knutson to dismiss the case was enough.

Mrs. Knutson declined to talk with newsmen, but a member of her office staff said the congresswoman was living with her husband. The aide said she did not know where they were staying.

Differences between the Knutsons became news last spring when Andy publicly appealed to his blonde wife to give up politics and return home. He is a hotel operator in Oklee, Minn.

Disregarding this appeal, Mrs. Knutson ran for a third term but was defeated narrowly by Republican Odin Langen.

PROBERS SEEKING CAUSE OF TRAGIC SCHOOL FIRE

87 Pupils, 3 Nuns Perish in Chicago

CHICAGO (AP)—Grim investigators today shook off the shock of Chicago's worst school fire and strove to find the answer to this question:

"How did it happen and why?" The fire that flashed through Our Lady of the Angels School Monday shortly before closing time cost 90 lives—87 children and three nuns.

More than 85 youngsters remained in hospitals.

It was Chicago's most disastrous blaze since the Iroquois Theater holocaust in 1903 and the third worst school fire in the nation in 100 years.

The flames shot up in the two-story brick building like fire from a blowtorch. Heat and smoke trapped the victims on the upper floor of the north wing of the U-shaped structure.

Twenty-four bodies were found in one room. Most of them were jammed near windows. Firemen, sickened by the spectacle, said a few of the children were still at their desks, apparently paralyzed by fear and panic.

Others leaped from windows. The little survivors suffered from burns, bones broken in falls and the shock of the horror they beheld.

Fire Commissioner Robert J. Quinn considered the possibility of arson. That possibility was raised by the swift spread of the blaze.

"It was the worst thing I have ever seen or ever will see," he said.

Quinn also said the black smoke indicated an oil-type fire.

The fire originated in the northeast corner of the school at 3808 W. Iowa St. on the Northwest Side. Investigators pinpointed the place of origin below the street level.

A 30-gallon can was found in a stairwell in that section of the building.

structure. It was taken to the police crime laboratory for careful examination.

Another possibility was that the fire sprang up in waste paper in the basement near that corner of the building.

Daniel O'Shea, 12, a pupil who carried the waste paper to the basement a few minutes before the fire started was questioned by police seeking to determine the cause of the disaster.

The boy said he left his seventh grade room with a basket of paper about 10 minutes before the fire began. He added that he dumped the paper in a container to be burned later by the janitor.

Sgt. Drew Brown, head of the police arson squad, said the waste paper was dumped in the boiler room about 15 feet from the stairwell where the fire was believed to have started.

But, if the fire started in the paper, how was it kindled?

Nobody came forward with an answer.

One theory was that a cigarette may have been discarded in the refuse.

Sgt. Brown found black smudges on the lower walls of the stairwell that indicated an oil-like substance had burned there.

He stated that no evidence of a touchoff had been found thus far. Pope John XXIII sent to the Chicago Archdiocese a telegram of profound sorrow over the disaster in the Roman Catholic school.

Just 18 minutes was the difference between life and death for the 1,300 students and black-robed teachers in the school. The first box alarm was turned in at 2:42 p.m. The school let out at 3 p.m.

Within minutes the building turned into a wild, screaming inferno. Smoke and heat filled staircases and second-floor corridors so fast that normal exits were impassable.

School Fire Third Worst In 100 Years

CHICAGO (AP) — The fire that struck Our Lady of Angels School Monday was the third worst school fire in the nation in the last 100 years and the worst in Chicago in 55 years.

The greatest school disaster occurred March 18, 1937, when 294 died in a school explosion and fire in New London, Tex.

The other major school fire claimed 176 lives in the Collinwood School in Cleveland March 4, 1908.

The worst fire in Chicago took 602 lives Dec. 30, 1903, when the Iroquois Theater burned.

In June 5, 1946, 61 persons perished in a fire in the LaSalle Hotel, Chicago.

There have been 26 fires in this country in which as many as 50 persons died. Two were school fires. Only eight fires with such a loss of life have occurred in the last 20 years, none of them in schools.

Worst of these recent fires was the Coconut Grove Night Club blaze in Boston Nov. 28, 1942, in which 498 died.

Other fires with major losses of life in the last two decades are: Dec. 7, 1946 — 119 dead in Wine-coff Hotel fire, Atlanta, Ga.

Oct. 20, 1944 — 135 killed in Cleveland liquid gas explosion and fire.

July 6, 1944 — 168 dead in Ringling Brothers Barnum and Bailey Circus fire at Hartford, Conn.

April 23, 1940 — 198 killed in Negro dance hall fire at Natchez, Miss.

Arson Hinted Back of Fires In Toledo

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Striking similarities in an epidemic of major fires here this year indicate arsonists have been behind some of them.

There have been seven big fires on the west side of Toledo and in adjoining Washington Twp., causing losses of approximately 1½ million dollars.

Most of the fires broke out while the places were closed. In most cases, the fires had a good start before they were seen. Frequently the damage was so extensive that it thwarted efforts to determine the cause.

In one—a $260,000 blaze that gutted Epworth Methodist Church Sept. 7—arson has been held definitely the cause.

The biggest loss, $60,000, was in a Jan. 25 blaze that destroyed the W. T. Grant Store and damaged four others in the Miracle Mile shopping center. An insurance settlement was made on the basis that the fire was caused by a discarded cigarette.

The latest major fire was Monday, when an $80,000 blaze wrecked the Franklin Park Furniture Co. building. It was blamed on a thermostat failure on a gas unit heater.

Other big fires were at the Embers Night Club, the Tivoli Restaurant, the Leader Department Store and in a building housing a warehouse and a bottling concern.

Nationalist, 85, Wins in Uruguay

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (AP) — Luis Alberto de Herrera, a rabid 85-year-old nationalist, is the new top political figure in this South American republic.

The right-wing Herrerista faction of the National party won control of Uruguay's nine-man National Council of Government by upsetting the Colorado (liberal) party in voting Sunday.

No change in Uruguay's pro-Western foreign policy was expected though Herrera has clashed with the Western democracies frequently in the past and favored neutrality during World War II.

George Ramey Sues Columbus Hardware Co.

George R. Ramey, 807 S. Scioto St., yesterday filed with the Pickaway County Common Pleas Court a damage suit against Smith Brothers Hardware Co., Columbus, demanding $10,000.

Ramey, represented by Kenneth Agee, Columbus attorney, stated in his petition that he suffered serious injury which resulted in loss of work, due to a defective shotgun purchased through one of the Hardware Co.'s retail outlets.

Ramey related that he purchased the shotgun from Boyer's Hardware, 810 S. Court St. He said that near Tarlton, while hunting, he shot the gun for the first time and its stock exploded, fracturing his right hand.

Due to his injury, Ramey said he was unable to work as a plasterer for 90 days. He stated that Smith Brothers knew the gun was defective and dangerous when they sold it.

He contends the defendants were negligent in not ascertaining if the gun was safe and free from danger, and failed to warn him of its peril. He said that when he purchased the gun he was told by agents of the company that the gun was free from defects.

Agency Seeks Shield Planes From Rockets

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Civil Aeronautics Board stepped in today to protect airplanes from the hazards of amateur rocketry.

No airplane has been shot down by the amateurs' missiles and rockets — yet or otherwise — but the CAB said there is growing concern over the hazards.

"This concern has been enlarged by recent large-scale production of rockets which are available to the general public at a relatively small cost through hobby shops and department stores," it said.

To prevent such equipment from becoming potential anti-aircraft weapons, the CAB proposed a series of amendments to civil air regulations under which it controls air space. It will accept comments from anyone concerned until Jan. 27, and will act after that.

The board proposed to prohibit rocket and missile firings within five miles of any airport, and to ban them entirely in areas of controlled air space such as civil airways and airport traffic patterns.

The new rules also would prohibit firings to a height of more than 500 feet unless the launch site and firing were approved by the administrator of civil aeronautics.

Automotive Sales Rise

New motor vehicle sales to Pickaway County residents during November totaled 93 or 13 more than October.

Motor vehicles sold were 64 automobiles, 11 more than last month, 13 station wagons, six more than October, 11 trucks, one over October, and three cycles and three house trailers, seven less than October.

Automotive mortgages totaled 356 or 22 less than last month. Cancellations of mortgages and loans numbered 324 or 52 less than October.

FORD dominated the front position in motor vehicles sold in November, unseating Chevrolet from its ten month reign. Ford sold 29 vehicles, while Chevrolet followed in second place with 12.

Ford jumped from 13 sold last month to 29, an increase of 16, while Chevrolet dropped four from October. Oldsmobile moved into third place with eight vehicles sold, six more than last month.

Other motor vehicles sold were Buick, seven; Plymouth and Rambler, six; Dodge, four; Edsel and Studebaker, three; DeSoto, Pontiac and International, two and Volvo, Renault, Cadillac and GMC, one each.

State Completes Case in Slaying At Barnesville

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, Ohio (AP) — The prosecution has already rested its case, and the first-degree murder trial of Clarence R. Anshutz, 38, of Barnesville (Belmont County) may be completed Wednesday.

Anshutz, a construction worker, is being tried in the shooting of his common-law wife Aug. 18. Authorities said he attempted to take his own life by placing a shotgun in his mouth, but instead shot away part of his cheek and nose.

Three judges are hearing the case in Belmont County Common Pleas Court. The prosecution presented its case in four hours Monday, and introduced what it contends is Anshutz' written admission of the shooting. The defense asserted Anshutz' father, Robert, shot another man Nov. 2, 1932, then took his own life, and that this has preyed on his son's mind.

Just what happened to the money was not explained. It was originally reported that Peterson had been accused of misappropriating the funds. But the FBI said the charge against him was that he "made or caused to be made a false entry in the bank's records."

The falsification consisted of failing to charge to the individual customers' accounts at least $800,000 paid out by the bank for checks drawn on the accounts, said William Alexander, of the Los Angeles FBI office.

All Petersen said was: "I don't have any of this money." Sun Valley National was sold Saturday to the Security-First National Bank of Los Angeles.

Farm Bureau Council Groups Conduct Annual Meet Here

The second annual Farm Bureau Council Officers Conference was held last night at the Farm Bureau Home on E. Main St.

This conference is for newly elected officers of the Farm Bureau Councils in Pickaway County. The purpose is to help these officers learn more about duties of the offices which they will hold in the coming year. Chairmen, vice chairmen, secretaries and discussion leaders for 1959 were invited.

The meeting was sponsored again this year by the Farm Bureau Women's Committee. Miss Mary Shortridge, retiring chairman of the Women's Committee, presided and introduced those present.

Don Pollitt, organization director of the Pickaway County Farm Bureau, presented the purpose of the meeting and introduced Miss

Stock Mart Drifts Lower, Trading Quiet

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market drifted lower today in much more quiet dealings than in recent excited sessions.

The losses did not amount to much but they were spread over important stock groups. The decline was no surprise to market analysts, who had expected it after three days of advancing prices.

An encouraging factor, brokers said, was that the trading pace slackened on the price slump. Volume for the first two hours today totaled 1,350,000 at the same time with 1,620,000 at the same time Monday.

Goodyear ran up more than four points in the rubber section. Standard Packaging raced ahead more than a point in good volume. Pfizer gained a fraction, as did Merck.

Radio Corp. advanced nearly two points, but most of the rest of the electronics group rested after Monday's upsurge. Zenith fell more than one point but wiped out the loss in later dealings.

American Telephone & Telegraph retreated on profit taking. The steels, oils, metals and tobaccos were generally lower but in no case did losses run as much as one point in major stocks. Aircrafts were mixed.

Rails declined. Illinois Central lost one point as about the weakest stock in the group. U.S. governments opened higher then receded.

Soviet Bloc Opposes A-Arms for Germany

GENEVA (AP) — Soviet bloc delegates said today any nuclear armament of West Germany would have an adverse effect on the arms control negotiations in Geneva.

Soviet and Polish delegates stressed that at the 10-nation talks on surprise attack problems, they would oppose any such armament.

Steve Cochran Is Proving Hollywood Characters Exist

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Those who think that Hollywood is losing its characters should take a trip to Steve Cochran's house.

Some place! It's got a swimming pool that looks more like a mountain lake, complete with island. Also 25 animals, including two goats and a deer named Tabby.

The house clings to a hillside. The first greeters are Shane, a German shepherd, and his pal Tabby, an extremely companionable deer of four months. There are cats all over the place.

Steve appears in blue jeans, dirty shirt and bare feet—he's no beatnik, just likes comfort. He explains about Tabby: It was found on a mountain road with rear end smashed by a car. Steve adopted it, had a vet fix its hind quarters with steel pins.

Tabby is recovered now, he adds, and is handy around the house. Loves cigarette butts and cleans out all the ash trays. Only trouble: Tabby drinks. It sneaks around at parties and takes sips from the guests' glasses.

Steve wanders through the house, which is a normal California ranch-type with a 50-year-old slot machine and an ancient piano. Outside, he shows the sunken bar he is building. It will house some huge whisky barrels, in which he plans to make his own wine.

Then he ambles down the two-acre estate to his latest addition. It's a monstrous swimming pool with a tropical island in the middle. "The pool started out to be 48 feet long," Steve says, "but by the time I finished, it was 66 feet. I'm going to stock it with perch."

The pool, which is classified as a reservoir for tax reasons, will eventually have a waterfall flowing into it and a mountain stream continuing down the mountain. Cost of the project: $12,000.

In another part of the grounds, Steve introduces two other pals, Gretchen and Heidi. Both goats, but one smells like a goat and the other doesn't.

"Cats?" says Cochran. "I've got seven of them—at meal-time; three more wild ones come out of the brush. One cat is named Zsa Zsa—she's mean and unfriendly and won't eat with the other cats. She's a real cool cat."

And so is a guy named Steve Cochran.

Fats, Leans To Vie in Eating Test

BOLOGNA, Italy (AP)—This hearty-eating city is going to find out who can eat the most—the fats or the leans.

The leans can weight up to 165. The fats must weigh 210 or more. They will compete in an eating contest Dec. 13.

Sponsors are the National Gastronomic Academy and the National Assn. of Chefs.

The ground rules warn: "The promoters disclaim any responsibility whatsoever for any damage real or imagined now or in the future to the health of contestants. They stuff at their own risk."

Contestants can come from anywhere in Italy.

Sole dish for the contest will be a standby, tortellini in brodo. The tortellini are little, round, meat-stuffed pastas, shaped like doughnuts and tasting like ravioli. They're served in rich broth.

Just to eliminate the pikers, contestants will have to gulp their way first through three bowls of tortellini—each dish weighing a pound—in 45 minutes.

Those who can still hoist a spoon and fork after that are in the finals.

They get one dish after another of the tortellini for 90 more minutes. The one who puts away the greatest poundage of it in that time is the winner.

He will be awarded a golden tortellini.

$39,885 Fee For Appraiser Is Ruled OK

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Department of Highways says payment of a $39,885 fee for appraising land and damages to adjoining land needed for a road at Circleville was not excessive.

The fee was paid the late Henry W. Kelly, Columbus industrial engineer, in November of 1957. The land was used for building a section of U.S. 23.

It was acquired from the Container Corp. of America which at the start of negotiations wanted 14 million dollars. Later the company said it would take $350,000.

A highway department spokesman said the Kelly appraisal was the basis for the final settlement of $130,000 and that the fee of $39,885 was not out of line with services Kelley performed.

Kelly had a crew of eight or more persons working on the job at one time, making a study of the firm's operations before making a final appraisal.

Land needed by the state cut through a portion of the firm's straw storage yards.

Man Killed In Plot by Wife, Lover

CHICAGO (AP)—A mother of three and her ex-convict boy friend are charged with murdering her husband in what police described as a plot to collect a double indemnity insurance policy.

Police said 23-year-old Richard Lansing, whose criminal record began when he was 15, admitted shooting Peter Saisi, 30, in the head as the insurance agent lay pleading on the basement floor of his West Side home the night of Oct. 27.

Lansing and Mrs. Mary Saisi, 33, stared at each other coldly Sunday moments before police charged the pair with killing Saisi.

Lansing said, according to police, that he shot Saisi at the woman's instigation for part of a $12,000 double indemnity insurance policy and Saisi's 1958 model car.

Earlier, Mrs. Saisi told calmly that she had plotted with Lansing on robbing her husband because Lansing needed money. But she insisted she never suggested the killing.

After Saisi was killed, Mrs. Saisi told police he was shot by two Negroes who broke into and robbed her husband's basement office. She aided a police artist in drawing sketches of the two men.

Police said they were skeptical. They couldn't understand why robbers would take only $180 from Saisi's pockets, leave an expensive watch and order Mrs. Saisi upstairs as she claimed. Robbers would have forced her to remain in the basement, they theorized.

West Could Lose Battle for Berlin

BERLIN (AP)—The Western Allies could lose the new battle for Berlin even before the expected showdown with the Soviet Union on the future of the embattled city.

At this point, there is apprehension and pessimism among some West Berliners about the ability and determination of the Allies to maintain their position here. If this grew, it could have severe morale and economic repercussions.

The East German Reds are playing on this fear.

They proclaim that any future Allied airlift to supply Berlin would be regarded as a military threat. This and similar warnings are intended to choke off the hope of the West Berliners for a new Allied airlift.

The uncertainty in West Berlin contrasts sharply with the cool nerve displayed here during the 1948-49 Soviet blockade.

Then the crisis erupted suddenly and the Allies quickly called Premier Stalin's bluff with a massive airlift. The West Berliners reacted with a firm "We shall hang on until the Russians give in."

There is no sign that their fighting spirit is less today. But there is a rather widespread feeling of "Will the Allies stand firm?" And, "If so, what can they do to keep out the Russians?"

U.S. Secretary of State Dulles' remark that the Allies might deal with the East Germans as Soviet agents touched off newspaper speculation here that Washington might have come to some secret understanding with Moscow about the future of West Berlin. Despite denials, this deepened the sense of bewilderment among West Berliners.

Willy Brandt, the fighting West

Berlin mayor, is making strenuous efforts to shore up his citizens' morale. Immediately after the Soviet near ultimatum to the Western Allies to get out of the city within six months, Brandt took to TV and radio to urge Berliners not to become panicky.

West German leaders understand the vital need for swift action to express confidence in West Berlin's future. They are reported readying huge government orders for plants here.

As an indication of what could come, some West Berliners have transferred capital to Switzerland. Hotels report some cancellations of rooms due to the crisis. Tourist business has declined.

Despite the utterances of Mayor Brandt and Western leaders, the apprehension remains.

A manufacturer said: "Some of my contracts for delivery of goods next spring have been canceled. Some firms just don't want to count on deliveries from Berlin any more. If this goes on, I'll have to start laying off people in my plant."

A salesgirl said: "My feeling is, let's live it up today. We can't tell what tomorrow—or six months—will bring here."

Old Law of Supply and Demand

Bernard Baruch insists there is only one law in economics, the law of supply and demand that governs prices. But Mr. Baruch studied economics at college in the 1880s when that law had integrity and its virtue commanded honor and respect.

Now the old law is in disrepute among today's political economists and economic politicians. No longer is there any relation between prices and supply or demand. The old law has been supplanted by a new one: Keep prices up at all costs—even if, for example, the grain in bulging bins rots and becomes vermin-infested and new automobiles rust on jammed car lots.

This latter-day economic concept is not only a domestic paradox. Its effect also is to price ourselves out of export markets at a time when U. S. economic and foreign policies emphasize international trade as the way to win friends abroad and balk communism.

John J. McCloy, chairman of the Chase Manhattan Bank of New York, took note of this fact in his address opening the 45th National Foreign Trade Convention in New York. Citing the trend abroad toward integration of regional trade, Mr. McCloy said:

"We have to face the fact that in many lines we are pricing ourselves right out of the world market. We have to make it clear to all that we have to keep prices and costs down."

A disconcertingly large number of people abroad, the former U. S. high commissioner for Germany added, are working harder and rapidly achieving a competitive know-how. Russia's progress in industrial development is a challenge to our position as the world's chief supplier.

The Soviet Union has intensified its economic warfare against the United States with the Khrushchev seven-year blueprint for an 80 per cent increase in Russia's national production. Presumably, Khrushchev will use the additional production to undercut American business. Dumping of goods is a major Russian weapon in the fight to gain control of the uncommitted nations without bloodshed.

If the United States is to beat the Russians at their own game, it is imperative that American products be improved and offered to the world at prices the buyers will accept.

GOC Is Now Obsolete

The Air Force has disbanded the Ground Observer Corps, the civilian volunteers, 280,000 strong, who have maintained at 16,000 observation posts a vigilant skywatch for hostile aircraft. They comprised what the Air Force agrees was the "greatest civilian peacetime volunteer defense organization in the history of the nation."

But the advance of aviation and electronics has overtaken them and made their services useless. It would now be too late to do anything about an enemy plane that was not detected until it was overhead. An enemy strike must be identified while it is still far out over the sea.

The electronic radar net across the Arctic and its extension seaward by ship and aircraft provide a better defense. But in its early years the GOC performed a useful service and performed it with devotion.

Ogden Nash -- Lucky Freak

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — "There is an awful lot of tightrope walking in the world today," said Ogden Nash.

"There are so many more toes that a humorist can't help stepping on a few."

When he was 10 and his older sister was about to be married, Nash composed an ode long cherished by his family. It began:

"The beautiful spring at last is here,
And has taken my sister I sadly fear."

Some 46 years, 50,000 published lines, and a million chuckles later, Nash is widely rated as America's most successful writer of light verse.

His 13 books have sold nearly two million copies. With the possible exception of Robert Frost, he probably is the only well known American author who has made a living in the last quarter century from verse.

"I'm something of a freak," he admitted. "I've been lucky."

But even Nash has found it advisable to toil parttime in other vineyards. He lectures, has done two stints in Hollywood, written lyrics for Broadway shows, appeared as a TV panelist.

His latest television assignment was to write the lyrics for six songs for "Peter and the Wolf," starring Art Carney.

"The only love song was sung by a near-sighted dog to a duck under the impression she was a water spaniel," he said.

This kind of chore delights the offbeat mind of Nash, master of the kind of outrageous rhymes that tickle modern readers but give traditional poets a desire to beat their heads against a wall.

"I think in terms of rhyme, and have since I was six years old," he said.

He once almost fell in love with a lady named Mrs. Biorange. She fascinated him because of the similarity of her name to orange which, like the words silver and pilgrim, have no dictionary rhymes.

Nash began his career composing streetcar card ads at $1000 a month for a firm which previously had employed F. Scott Fitzgerald in this task.

"I never wrote a car card that appeared in New York City," he said. "Just places like Chillicothe, Ohio."

Nash, a soft-voiced, hazel-eyed six footer with an habitual expression of absent-minded inquiry, is a painstaking craftsman. He turns out only one or two verses a week now, writing in pencil on sheets of yellow paper.

"I work at home because there are so many interruptions there," he remarked. "I like interruptions."

Asked if he felt any of his verse had done any enduring good for the human race, Nash, a highly unpretentious man, smiled and nominated the following lines, the most widely reprinted of all he has written:

"I think that I shall never see
A billboard lovely as a tree.
Perhaps, unless the billboards fall,
I'll never see a tree at all."

We Need To Face the Truth

By George Sokolsky

I once heard a man make this comparison. He said: the Romans at least knew that the barbarians were at their gates; we are conscious of nothing.

Americans dislike gloom. They dislike gloomy thoughts. They dislike believing the worst or even unpleasantly. This is a nation of optimists with a long tradition to justify that we are indeed a fortunate people. Also, Americans, with a measure of reason, believe that mechanically and technologically, they are superior to any nation on earth which they show by their high standard of living.

Realism, however, demands that we face the fact that we have a "Cold War" which has protracted itself now for a sufficiently long period to justify taking it seriously, to study its meaning and to assume that our defense must be now. Our government is at any rate organizing to meet the situation, but it has failed to prepare the people for it and for the consequences that face us. After all, in our kind of country, unless the people support the government, it can have no policy and no purpose.

The weakness of the politician is that he still believes that he can both lead a horse to water and make him drink. The course of events since 1945 shows that Americans can be apathetic about their own country when they lose confidence in the leadership of government.

We are at war. The Cold War is costly in wealth, in time, and its consequences may be devastating. It is not as costly in human life as a shooting war. But should we lose the Cold War we might lose our national existence or we might be forced to fight a shooting war too late for it to be to our advantage.

The planners believe, however, that they are now reaching the time when the non-Soviet world recognizes the perils we face and therefore the kind of coalition is possible which may save us. Their calculations are based on the assumption that the Soviet side is making and will make as many mistakes as our side does and that if mistakes are balanced there is still hope.

What we need is the kind of candor which is rare among political leaders. Our prospect of success against the Soviet World depends upon our technological advance. They must not catch up to us, because if they do, or if they pass us, we shall be defeated without battle.

It therefore becomes necessary for us to undertake basic steps to meet this situation:

1. It will require a total reorganization of our educational procedures and facilities from the primary school to post graduate work in the university. We cannot afford the waste of fads and frills. Our educators must get down to bed rock, teaching hard courses and requiring students to get good marks for hard work, and throwing out all others who can find other work to do. Unless we key up our educational system, we shall not be producing enough thinkers to make it possible for us to have a chance. This requires not only knowledge but honesty of purpose.

2. We need to rearrange and coordinate our various governments, Federal, state and municipal, to cut out all waste. We have no time for wastrels. The politicians who cannot adjust to government without waste, without graft and corruption and the nonsense that is called "politics," are doing immense damage to this country. We are not rich any longer and cannot afford to pay the fancy bills which the politicians charge us for letting them govern us.

3. We need to fight inflation at home so that we are not defeated by our own means. The cost of government, of living, is so high and is rising so rapidly that the value of the American dollar is diminishing at home and abroad. It is that diminishing value of the dollar that gives our enemy an advantage over us. It is necessary for government to meet that situation even if it means restoring controls.

An honest statement by the President to the people, well-documented, will save heartaches later. President Eisenhower can do it without such risks as politicians do not like to take. After all, he can never stand for re-election and need not fear the political consequences of the truth.

Traffic Hazards

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — It seems that traffic hazards apply to all. Here's what was in a 24-hour report here:

An out-of-town policeman was hurt in a collision.

A fireman was injured when fire apparatus collided with a car.

A police accident investigator was injured in an accident enroute to the scene of an accident.

A police hit-and-run investigator was the victim of a hit-and-run driver.

LAFF-A-DAY

"Mother, you know that recipe you gave me for meatballs..."

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

TWO ADVERTISING tycoons, dining in an expensive restaurant that befitted their expense accounts, fell into a violent argument. One beckoned a waiter to ask, "Could you lend us a dime to settle a bet?"

The waiter produced the dime, the coin was flipped, the argument settled—and eventually the check was produced. One item thereon startled the tycoons—even though they were only signing the agency's name. It read, "Loan of a dime: 25c."

Cedric Adams tells of two dauntless fishermen who were trolling for muskellunge on a lake in northern Minnesota. The muskies were vicious that day, and snapping at everything—but they absolutely refused to be hooked.

"I say we quit," said one fisherman finally. "Okay by me," agreed the other. "I don't mind them having Sunday dinner off my bait, but what gets me is when they shove their heads up, lean back on their flippers, and use my line for dental floss!"

Keep Healthy for Holidays

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Before you set out on your annual Christmas shopping spree this year, let me give you a few hints that may save you time, energy and headaches.

The holiday season, especially the week between Christmas and the New Year, is pretty rough, both physically and mentally, on most of us.

Your general health should be on a high plane to see you through the hustle and bustle with no serious after-effects. So I don't want you worn out by shopping before the holidays even begin.

Everyone always plans to beat the "Christmas rush," of course, but how many of us actually do it? This year really buckle down and get your shopping completed early. Those hectic days the week before Christmas can leave you completely fagged, if you let your shopping go until the last minute.

But whenever you decide to shop, you might try to make it on a Friday. In general, stores are less crowded on Friday. And I think you'll find that crowds are smaller before 11:30 a. m. and after 3:30 p. m.

Now, chances are that, no matter how early you start, your shopping will carry you into the lunch hours. While you should have forefeited yourself with a substantial breakfast before setting out, you should also take sufficient time to relax and enjoy your noon meal.

Busiest time for most restaurants is from noon to 1 p. m. So, if possible, try to arrange your lunch hour either before or after this time.

You should dress warmly en-inside much of the time. And, for heaven's sake, wear sensible shoes!

But the real secret of saving time and energy on these shopping trips is to organize them well in advance.

Decide as well as you can what you want to get for each friend and relative. Then jot down the proposed present opposite the name of each recipient. You probably will change your mind about some presents, once you see all the gifts available, but this type of planning should be very helpful.

Usually it's best to shop alone. You get more done at a faster pace if you don't have to wait for someone else to make up his mind. Finally, try to get home early enough to have time to sit down and relax before you start preparing the evening meal. Take time to drink a glass of fruit juice, or a glass of milk. You'll be surprised at how it will refresh you.

Question and Answer

R. O.: Would it be of any benefit for my 12-year-old son to have his teeth given the fluoride treatment? Our city water has never been treated.

Answer: Most dentists believe that fluoride treatment of the teeth at any age, when the water supply is not fluoridized, is of benefit in decreasing the susceptibility to dental caries (cavities).

NEW HOLLAND GRADE SCHOOL NEWS

First Grade
A new girl entered our class on Monday. She is Pamela Manuel and has been attending Fairfield Elementary School in Highland County. We now have 19 girls and nine boys in our room.

We wrote a Thanksgiving story to put on our bulletin board last week. We each had a turn to tell what we are most thankful for and we included each idea in the story.

Some of the things that were mentioned most often were: mothers and fathers, brothers and sisters, homes, food, churches, for God, the sun and rain, schools, Jesus, for friends and neighbors, for teachers and Tommy Gifford mentioned that he is especially thankful for his new baby brother. We also drew pictures of things which we are thankful for.

Janet Adams brought several ears of brightly colored Indian corn to put with our Thanksgiving display. We learned that the Indians gave corn to the pilgrims.

WE WILL finish reading our third pre-primer this week and will be ready next week for a word test which will include all the new words in the last pre-primer.

Most of the boys and girls in our room have learned to write their numbers to 50. Fifteen boys and girls in our room attended Sunday School.

Second Grade
The following pupils made a perfect score in Friday's spelling test of 30 review words.

They were Marilyn Ferguson, Diana Eckle, Vivian Thacker, Darlene Day, Debbie Travis, Gary Rohrer, Reber Hamilton, Kristi Cross, Larry Ankrom, Roger Walters, Cindy Cottrell, Johnny Rowland, Eddie Morrow, Melanice Oesterle and Nancy Collett.

Fifteen boys and girls attended Sunday School.

Third Grade
Ronald Manuel, from Fairfield School, Highland County, enrolled in our class on Monday. The Manuel family has moved into the house vacated by the Gene Doyle family.

THE PUPILS who attended Sunday School are Linda Gifford, Peggy Cook, Clarisse McCune, Mary Ann Mossbarger, David Shaeffer, Jay Cottrell, Joyce Speakman, Peggy Marvin, Dana Kirkpatrick, Debbie Hill, Bryan Cupp and Glendon Hart.

We had review lessons on 35 spelling words last week. The pupils who made 100 on the three tests were: Johnny and Sonny Saxour, Paulette Wood, Ronnie Salyers, Mary Ann Mossbarger, Linda Lemaster, Peggy Marvin and Peggy Cook.

Fourth Grade
Fourteen pupils have perfect attendance for three months. They are Phillip Brown, Tracy Burkhardt, Joyce Durlinger, Carolyn Ferguson, Donald Funk, Rex Hunter, Cynthia Kelly, Rankin Kirkpatrick, Roger Knapp, Janice McKee, Diana Rohrer, Danny Shaw, Deborah Shultz and Nancy Williams.

Cynthia Kelly, Donald Funk, Janice McKee, Carolyn Ferguson, Deborah Shultz, Diana Rohrer, Jacqueline Doyle, Joyce Durlinger, Nancy Williams, Rankin Kirkpatrick, Rex Hunter, Roger Knapp and Ruth Sutton received 100 on their six weeks spelling test.

Diana Rohrer received 100 on her English test. Thirteen pupils attended Sunday School.

Fifth Grade
We have had our six weeks tests and several made very good grades. On our Honor Roll are Terry Cross, Dick Doyle, Steven Flack, Dicky Hickie, Roger Kirk, Christine Melick, Patty Morgan, Linda Patterson, Janice Root, Roger Satchell, Sherry Thacker and Vivian Thacker.

ALTHOUGH no one got 100 on all of their tests, Christine Melick and Sherry Thacker came the nearest. They each got 96 in Arithmetic and 100 in history, English, spelling and geography.

Our girls had five and one-half days absence and the boys six days absence during our second six weeks of school.

Those who haven't missed a day of school yet are Steven Flack, Sarah Funk, Bruce Kirk, Christine Melick, Genie Orihood, Janice Root, Carolyn Shadley, Virginia Thacker, Bessie Wilcox, Doris Williams and Frank Wood.

Seventh Grade
The boys and girls who attend Sunday School are Carol Bowdie, Mike Doyle, Terry Doyle, Kay Gooley, Larry Hott, Dick Strausbaugh, Danny Kirk, Steven Lewis, Bobby McIntire, Juanita Mills, Carole Morgan, Jay Pinkerton, Don Reed, Carol Sue Stokes and David McKee.

Eighth Grade
Last Thursday, our junior high basketball team lost at Jeffersonville, 40-20. We played a game after school at Bloomingburg on Wednesday of this week. We have taken tests in English and science but do not know our grades.

We were dismissed on Wednesday at 2 p. m. and were also to be out of school, Thursday and Friday.

THOSE WHO received 100 in spelling are Jennifer Ankrom, Mike Eckle, Nadine Haggard, Patti Hidy, Charles Hunter, Kay Bush, Shirley Jobe, David Oesterle and Elizabeth Redding.

It was the first 100 in spelling for David Oesterle this year. He thus has the place held by Delbert Bochart last week for having his first 100 in spelling.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS
Sophomore Class
We have just finished our second six weeks of the first semester.

We all hope to do as well as we did the first six weeks.

We wish to thank everyone who came and helped us with our recent bake sale. We made $24.37. Tonight we are having a spaghetti supper.

Boys Find Bulldozer Ride Is Costly One

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Three boys who learned from an old Navy Seabee manual how to start a bulldozer, but didn't read far enough to find out how to stop it, were held on charges of grand larceny and malicious destruction of property today.

Police said the joy-riding youths leaped from the big machine when it started down hill. The bulldozer smashed through one house in which six persons were sleeping and damaged a second house with four persons in it.

Officers said the boys used a hacksaw to cut through a steel band padlocked around the starter of the bulldozer.

No one in the two houses was hurt. Names of the youths were withheld pending a hearing.

U.S. Jewelers Expect To Set Sales Records

7 Pct. Increase During Holiday Is Anticipated By Trade

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—The nation's jewelers say they expect to set sales records this Christmas.

The Jewelry Industry Council reports today its members anticipate a 7 per cent sales increase in holiday business, which would pull the year's total to a new high.

The Thanksgiving-to-Christmas period is all important to the retail jeweler. In this period he normally chalks up 28 per cent of his sales for the year. Any letdown in Christmas spirit by consumers could spell disaster as far as the year's profits go.

But this year Albert E. Haase, president of the Council, says most of the nation's 24,000 retail jewelers are solidly optimistic.

Business recessions usually spell trouble for the merchants of decoration and tableware. But the most recent one saw scarcely a bobble.

The low point of the Depression, 1933, saw sales slide to 175 million dollars. Since the war they have never fallen below one billion a year, but the postwar low was the recession year of 1949, when they stood at 1 1/2 billion.

The Council also has figured sales per capita as the nation's population has grown. In 1929 it was $4.40; last year it was at a peak of $9.95.

Haase points out other factors. One is the growing pre-marriage market. Teen-agers and those in their early 20s have been urged to dress up with jewelry and to lay in a store of silverware.

The steady growth in the school population has had two effects. Buying of graduation watches and other gifts helped swell jewelers' profits. And the Council holds that "the rise of the education level in the country has produced a proportionate rise in the taste level."

The high postwar marriage rate and the spurt in the birth rate has played a big part. And jewelers expect a real marriage boom to start in 1960.

Hopes for this month's increased sales are based on still another factor. Jewelers, along with many other retailers, regard this as a beginning of a new era of elegance.

90 Die in Fire In Chicago School

"We are trapped. We are trapped," nuns screamed from the windows as they huddled with groups of pupils.

Many children panicked, stampeded to windows. Some leaped to death on sidewalks below.

"Nothing killed those kids but heat and smoke," Quinn said. "They just couldn't get out into the corridor to go downstairs."

Nearly all the eighth-grade class in two upper-floor classrooms perished.

Screams of children trapped on upper floors drifted down to hundreds of horrified spectators and hysterical parents.

Firemen raised ladders and brought down dozens of pupils. Priests, on the scene even before the fire fighters, led out others.

Nuns, with disregard for their own safety, rolled some pupils down staircases. Children ducked to the floor, seeking cool and fresh air, and crawled out. Others groped their way to freedom by grasping hands and belt buckles of classmates and filing out the smoke-filled structure.

For some there was no rescue, however.

"God, we tried. God, how we tried," sobbed one fireman. "But we couldn't move fast enough. No one could live in that fire."

As the bodies were brought down in the eerie, hazy light, parents pushed against police lines, crying, "Where are our children? Where are our children?"

The dead were placed in a courtyard where only a few hours before the children had been laughing and playing.

The injured were taken to seven nearby West Side hospitals. Twenty-two victims died en route to hospitals or soon after arrival. Sixty-eight bodies were sent directly to the morgue where parents and relatives gathered for the dreaded identification ordeal.

Of the dead 53 were girls and 34 boys. The heroic nuns accounted for the other three.

The U-shaped school at 3808 Iowa St. was built some 40 years ago. It was remodeled about five years ago. Fire officials said the school was checked last October and no violations were found. Exits were adequate, they said, and the ceilings were of wood lath and plaster. There were no false ceilings. The heating plant is fueled by oil.

A single fire escape, with exits from the first and second floors, was in the center of the rear, or east side of the building — the bottom of the U which joined the wings.

As news of the impending disaster spread through the low-income neighborhood, hundreds rushed to the scene. Grief-stricken parents began crashing through police cordons as the dead were removed. Several people fainted in the surging mass of humanity.

Priests walked through the crowd and stood near the doomed building, administering Extreme Unction, last rite of the Catholic Church.

As in most tragedies, there were countless tales of heroism.

A nun, who refused to identify herself, made three trips into the blistering fire, each time leading out six pupils. "I felt untold strength," she told newsmen while being treated for burns at St. Anne's Hospital.

Casimir Janik, 38, a milkman, said an unexplainable impulse made him alter his regular route home. He arrived at the school before firemen. He parked nearby and several times ran into the school, carrying burned children to safety.

"I found one girl, her shoes missing, hanging on to a banister, seemingly in a state of shock," he said. "I yanked her loose, took her to church and placed her on a pew. Twice I carried two girls out, one under each arm."

Students in the school painted a grisly picture of terror.

Linda Barleto, 12, said she was pushed out of a window in a second-floor classroom. "Our backs were burning. Then someone pushed me out the window." She suffered burns and bruises.

Her cousin Andrea Gagliareo, 12, told newsmen, "Some of the boys jumped out the window. When we looked out we saw them lying still on the ground. It was like a miracle when we saw the firemen with their ladders."

A boy who lives across from the school, Deroy Hewlett, 13, gave this graphic description: "Kids were hanging from the windows, jumping or falling in groups of three or four at a time. Smoke and flame poured from the windows. A little girl stood at the window of a ledge, screaming for help."

Early reports that there had been an explosion were discounted by firemen. Commissioner Quinn said the boiler room was intact. Then he said, "This could have been a touch-off. It spread too damn rapidly."

Fire investigators were closely checking the story of Mrs. Barbara Glowacki, who operates a candy store adjacent to the school on the north. She said just before she learned about the fire a man came into her store and asked to use a telephone.

The man, said Mrs. Glowacki, ran out quickly, calling out, "The school is on fire," after she told him she had no public telephone.

Police began a search for the man, described as middle-aged. With a toll of 90 the fire is the nation's third most disastrous school tragedy in the last century.

The toll is exceeded only by the New London, Tex., explosion and fire which killed 294 March 18, 1937, and the Collinwood school fire which claimed 176 lives March 4, 1908 in Cleveland.

In Chicago it ranked as the second greatest fire killer of the century. On Dec. 30, 1903, 602 persons died when flames swept through the downtown Iroquois Theater.

Newsprint Use Slated to Rise

Supply Is Plentiful During Last Year

NEW YORK (AP)—U.S. newspaper publishers had no problem getting enough newsprint in 1958.

There was such a bulge of supply over demand the North American newsprint producers paused in their big expansion programs.

The U.S. and Canadian mills were able to serve their customers without drawing on around 15 per cent of capacity.

Consumption should rise in 1959, along with the expected improvement in the nation's economy. But producers are sure they can handle even a sudden strong spurt in demand.

The American Newspaper Publishers Assn. reported consumption for much of this year ran about 4 per cent under 1957.

During the past two years, North American newsprint manufacturers carried out a 350-million dollar expansion, which boosted productive capacity by 20 per cent.

Despite the growth of newsprint manufacturing in the U.S., the domestic industry still is less than one-third the size of Canada's.

Newsprint is selling on a contract basis in New York at a delivered price of $134 a ton. The last general boost of $4 a ton came in March 1957.

As the year neared its end, Sir Eric Bowater, head of Bowater Paper Corp., was asked about the future of newsprint prices. He said:

"Somebody has got to absorb the ever increasing costs of production and distribution, a tendency that never seems to stop. It's not true to say I'm contemplating it, but a rise in prices is needed."

Supreme Court Hearing For Harvey Crow Due

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio Supreme Court attaches say a hearing will probably be scheduled soon on a motion by twice-disbarred attorney J. Harvey Crow of Urbana, who wants a State Bar Assn. committee's complaints against him made more definite. The committee says Crow has continued to practice law despite disbarment in 1956. He was disbarred previously in 1935 and reinstated in 1950.

NEW HOLLAND GRADE SCHOOL NEWS

First Grade
A new girl entered our class on Monday. She is Pamela Manuel and has been attending Fairfield Elementary School in Highland County. We now have 19 girls and nine boys in our room.

We wrote a Thanksgiving story to put on our bulletin board last week. We each had a turn to tell what we are most thankful for and we included each idea in the story.

Some of the things that were mentioned most often were: mothers and fathers, brothers and sisters, homes, food, churches, for God, the sun and rain, schools, Jesus, for friends and neighbors, for teachers and Tommy Gifford mentioned that he is especially thankful for his new baby brother. We also drew pictures of things which we are thankful for.

Janet Adams brought several ears of brightly colored Indian corn to put with our Thanksgiving display. We learned that the Indians gave corn to the pilgrims.

WE WILL finish reading our third pre-primer this week and will be ready next week for a word test which will include all the new words in the last pre-primer.

Most of the boys and girls in our room have learned to write their numbers to 50. Fifteen boys and girls in our room attended Sunday School.

Second Grade
The following pupils made a perfect score in Friday's spelling test of 30 review words.

They were Marilyn Ferguson, Diana Eckle, Vivian Thacker, Darlene Day, Debbie Travis, Gary Rohrer, Reber Hamilton, Kristi Cross, Larry Ankrom, Roger Walters, Cindy Cottrell, Johnny Rowland, Eddie Morrow, Melanie Osterle and Nancy Collett.

Fifteen boys and girls attended Sunday School.

THE PUPILS who attended Sunday School are Linda Gifford, Peggy Cook, Clarisse McCune, Mary Ann Mossbarger, David Shaeffer, Jay Cottrell, Joyce Speakman, Peggy Marvin, Dana Kirkpatrick, Debbie Hill, Bryan Cupp and Glendon Hart.

We had review lessons on 35 spelling words last week. The pupils who made 100 on the three tests were: Johnny and Sonny Saxour, Pallette Wood, Ronnie Salyers, Mary Ann Mossbarger, Linda Lemaster, Peggy Marvin and Peggy Cook.

Fourth Grade
Fourteen pupils have perfect attendance for three months. They are Phillip Brown, Tracy Burkhardt, Joyce Durlinger, Carolyn Ferguson, Donald Funk, Rex Hunter, Cynthia Kelly, Rankin Kirkpatrick, Roger Knapp, Janice McKee, Diana Rohrer, Danny Morgan, Deborah Shiltz and Nancy Williams.

Boys Find Bulldozer Ride Is Costly One

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Three boys who learned from an old Navy Seabee manual how to start a bulldozer, but didn't read far enough to find out how to stop it, were held on charges of grand larceny and malicious destruction of property today.

Police said the joy-riding youths leaped from the big machine when it started down hill. The bulldozer smashed through one house in which six persons were sleeping and damaged a second house with four persons in it.

Officers said the boys used a hacksaw to cut through a steel band padlocked around the starter of the bulldozer.

No one in the two houses was hurt. Names of the youths were withheld pending a hearing.

U.S. Jewelers Expect To Set Sales Records

7 Pct. Increase During Holiday Is Anticipated By Trade

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—The nation's jewelers say they expect to set sales records this Christmas.

The Jewelry Industry Council reports today its members anticipate a 7 per cent sales increase in holiday business, which would pull the year's total to a new high. The Thanksgiving-to-Christmas period is all important to the retail jeweler. In this period he normally chalks up 28 per cent of his sales for the year. Any letdown in Christmas spirit by consumers could spell disaster as far as the year's profits go.

But this year Albert E. Haase, president of the Council, says most of the nation's 24,000 retail jewelers are solidly optimistic.

Business recessions usually spell trouble for the merchants of decoration and tableware. But the most recent one saw scarcely a bubble.

The low point of the Depression, 1933, saw sales slide to 175 million dollars. Since the war they have never fallen below one billion a year, but the postwar low was the recession year of 1949, when they stood at 1 1/2 billion.

The Council also has figured sales per capita as the nation's population has grown. In 1929 it was $4.40; last year it was at a peak of $9.95.

Haase points out other factors. One is the growing pre-marriage market. Teen-agers and those in their early 20s have been urged to dress up with jewelry and to lay in a store of silverware.

The steady growth in the school population has had two effects. Buying of graduation watches and other gifts helped swell jewelers' profits. And the Council holds that "the rise of the education level in the country has produced a proportionate rise in the taste level."

The high postwar marriage rate and the spurt in the birth rate has played a big part. And jewelers expect a real marriage boom to start in 1960.

Hopes for this month's increased sales are based on still another factor. Jewelers, along with many other retailers, regard this as a beginning of a new era of elegance.

Farmer, 78, To Face Sentence in Slaying

JEFFERSON, Ohio (AP) — An elderly Ashtabula County dairy farmer faces one to 20 years in prison for slaying his son during an argument last May 3. August Jeric, 78, was convicted of manslaughter and sentenced Monday by a three-judge panel in Common Pleas Court. He was charged with the shooting of his son, Adam, 35. The case was heard by Judge Hugh Hewitt of Ashtabula County and Trumbull County Judges G. H. Birrell and William H. McLain.

AFL-CIO To Ask New Compensation Setup

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Michael Lyden, president of the Ohio AFL-CIO, says the union will ask for changes in Ohio's unemployment and workmen's compensation laws at the next session of the General Assembly. Addressing a union compensation school Monday, he said Ohio ranks second nationally in commerce and industry, but is 35th in compensation paid injured workers and 21st in compensation paid the unemployed.

90 Die in Fire In Chicago School

"We are trapped. We are trapped," nuns screamed from the windows as they huddled with groups of pupils.

Many children panicked, stampeded to windows. Some leaped to death on sidewalks below.

"Nothing killed those kids but heat and smoke," Quinn said. "They just couldn't get out into the corridor to go downstairs."

Nearly all the eighth-grade class in two upper-floor classrooms perished.

Screams of children trapped on upper floors drifted down to hundreds of horrified spectators and hysterical parents.

Firemen raised ladders and brought down dozens of pupils. Priests, on the scene even before the fire fighters, led out others.

Nuns, with disregard for their own safety, rolled some pupils down staircases. Children ducked to the floor, seeking cool and fresh air, and crawled out. Others groped their way to freedom by grasping hands and belt buckles of classmates and filing out the smoke-filled structure.

For some there was no rescue, however.

"God, we tried. God, how we tried," sobbed one fireman. "But we couldn't move fast enough. No one could live in that fire."

As the bodies were brought down in the eerie, hazy light, parents pushed against police lines, crying, "Where are our children? Where are our children?"

The dead were placed in a courtyard where only a few hours before the children had been laughing and playing.

The injured were taken to seven nearby West Side hospitals. Twenty-two victims died en route to hospitals or soon after arrival. Sixty-eight bodies were sent directly to the morgue where parents and relatives gathered for the dreaded identification ordeal.

Of the dead 53 were girls and 34 boys. The heroic nuns accounted for the other three.

The U-shaped school at 3808 Iowa St. was built some 40 years ago. It was remodeled about five years ago. Fire officials said the school was checked last October and no violations were found. Exits were adequate, they said, and the ceilings were of wood lath and plaster. There were no false ceilings. The heating plant is fueled by oil.

A single fire escape, with exits from the first and second floors, was in the center of the rear, or east side of the building — the bottom of the U which joined the wings.

As news of the impending disaster spread through the low-income neighborhood, hundreds rushed to the scene. Grief-stricken parents began crashing through police cordons as the dead were removed. Several people fainted in the surging mass of humanity.

Priests walked through the crowd and stood near the doomed building, administering Extreme Unction, last rite of the Catholic Church.

As in most tragedies, there were countless tales of heroism. A nun, who refused to identify herself, made three trips into the blistering fire, each time leading out six pupils. "I felt untold strength," she told newsmen while being treated for burns at St. Anne's Hospital.

Casimir Janik, 38, a milkman, said an unexplainable impulse made him alter his regular route home. He arrived at the school before firemen. He parked nearby and several times ran into the school, carrying burned children to safety.

"I found one girl, her shoes missing, hanging on to a banister, seemingly in a state of shock," he said. "I yanked her loose, took her to church and placed her on a pew. Twice I carried two girls out, one under each arm."

Students in the school painted a grisly picture of terror. Linda Barleto, 12, said she was pushed out of a window in a second-floor classroom. "Our backs were burning. Then someone pushed me out the window." She suffered burns and bruises.

Her cousin Andrea Gagliareo, 12, told newsmen, "Some of the boys jumped out the window. When we looked out we saw them lying still on the ground. It was like a miracle when we saw the firemen with their ladders."

A boy who lives across from the school, Deroy Hewlett, 13, gave this graphic description: "Kids were hanging from the windows, jumping or falling in groups of three or four at a time. Smoke and flame poured from the windows. A little girl stood at the window of a ledge, screaming for help."

Early reports that there had been an explosion were discounted by firemen. Commissioner Quinn said the boiler room was intact. Then he said, "This could have been a touch-off. It spread too damn rapidly."

Fire investigators were closely checking the story of Mrs. Barbara Glowacki, who operates a candy store adjacent to the school on the north. She said just before she learned about the fire a man came into her store and asked to use a telephone.

The man, said Mrs. Glowacki, ran out quickly, calling out, "The school is on fire," after she told him she had no public telephone.

Police began a search for the man, described as middle-aged. With a toll of 90 the fire is the nation's third most disastrous school tragedy in the last century. The toll is exceeded only by the New London, Tex., explosion and fire which killed 294 March 18, 1937, and the Collinwood school fire which claimed 176 lives March 4, 1908 in Cleveland.

In Chicago it ranked as the second greatest fire killer of the century. On Dec. 30, 1903, 602 persons died when flames swept through the downtown Iroquois Theater.

Newsprint Use Slated to Rise

Supply Is Plentiful During Last Year

NEW YORK (AP)—U.S. newspaper publishers had no problem getting enough newsprint in 1958.

There was such a bulge of supply over demand the North American newsprint producers paused in their big expansion programs. The U.S. and Canadian mills were able to serve their customers without drawing on around 15 per cent of capacity.

Consumption should rise in 1959, along with the expected improvement in the nation's economy. But producers are sure they can handle even a sudden strong spurt in demand.

The American Newspaper Publishers Assn. reported consumption for much of this year ran about 4 per cent under 1957.

During the past two years, North American newsprint manufacturers carried out a 350-million dollar expansion, which boosted productive capacity by 20 per cent.

Despite the growth of newsprint manufacturing in the U.S., the domestic industry still is less than one-third the size of Canada's.

Newsprint is selling on a contract basis in New York at a delivered price of $134 a ton. The last general boost of $4 a ton came in March 1957.

As the year neared its end, Sir Eric Bowater, head of Bowater Paper Corp., was asked about the future of newsprint prices. He said:

"Somebody has got to absorb the ever increasing costs of production and distribution, a tendency that never seems to stop. It's not true to say I'm contemplating it, but a rise in prices is needed."

Supreme Court Hearing For Harvey Crow Due

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio Supreme Court attaches say a hearing will probably be scheduled soon on a motion by twice-disbarred attorney J. Harvey Crow of Urbana, who wants a State Bar Assn. committee's complaints against him made more definite. The committee says Crow has continued to practice law despite disbarment in 1956. He was disbarred previously in 1935 and reinstated in 1950.

Household Hints

Pancake batter may be poured into a jelly-roll pan and baked in a hot (425 degrees) oven for 15 minutes or so until baked through and lightly browned on top. Cut into squares, remove with a pancake turner and serve hot to a crowd with melted butter and maple syrup.

If you are planning to brown flour before using it in making gravy, remember that it will have about half the thickening power of unbrowned flour.

Tom Marshall Succeeds Wanzer As Royals Coach

CINCINNATI (AP) — Bobby Wanzer, got his walking papers Monday as coach of the lackluster pro basketball Cincinnati Royals. He said, "I expected it."

"We were losing and there was nothing else that could be done. When it comes down to the final wire, you can't fire the ball players, so only one guy is expendable."

His successor is veteran Tom Marshall, 27-year-old Western Kentucky grad, and — in spurts — one of the team's best point-makers this season.

He inherits a team that has won only 3 of 18 games this season and is firmly in the Western Division cellar of the National Basketball Assn.

Wanzer, 35, is a former Seton Hall whiz who graduated to eight years of stardom with the Royals at Rochester, N. Y. He was in his fourth year as coach.

Browns Select Linemen in Draft

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Coach Paul Brown of the Cleveland Browns sought linemen and defensive backs in the National Football League's player draft. He ended up with five linemen.

"We had several players in mind as defensive backs, but they went before we got to them," Brown explained after Monday's draft.

All but one of Cleveland's picks were from the Western Conference. The choices were, in order of their pick, Rich Kreitling, Illinois end; Dick Shafraht, Ohio State tackle and end; Francis O'Brien, Michigan State tackle; Gary Prahest, Michigan end; and Dave Lloyd, Georgia center.

"We had our fingers crossed that Rich Kreitling would last until our chance came," Brown said and added:

"Kreitling and Dick Shafraht were our top choices for their particular positions. I have only seen Kreitling on television but all our reports indicate he's a fine pass receiver.

 "Shafraht has played several spots in college, but we are thinking of him as an offensive guard. He's big and strong and growing. "We have known Gary Prahest (of Berea) a long time. He has been to our camp and worked on summer conditioning with Lou Groza.

Prahest, Brown continued, could be compared with End Jim Gibbons, traded by the Browns to the Detroit Lions.

"Gary was a track man and so he has speed," Brown said. "In fact," Brown concluded, "I believe he's faster than Gibbons."

Besides Shafraht, other Ohioans drafted Monday were: Emil Karas, Dayton tackle, to Washington; Dan James, Ohio State center (first round choice from Pittsburgh), to San Francisco; Don Clark, Ohio State halfback, to Chicago Bears; Joe Morrison, Cincinnati halfback, to New York.

Local Booster Club Pushes Junior High Grid Program

Several important items of business were discussed when officers and directors of the Circleville Booster Club met last night in the home of Emmett Emerine, Dunkel Road.

Much of the discussion was centered on the Booster Club's plans to initiate a junior high school football program here next season.

CHS grid coach Tom Bennett, after completing a survey, reported that it would cost about $800 to outfit a team. The cost would be about $25 to dress one player.

President David (Red) Crawford said the local club already has gone on record with plans for sponsoring the program here, at least initially.

PRESENT plans call for the Booster Club to give the new grid program all possible financial backing. It probably will be a major project for the group when football season opens next fall.

At present it appears that the Boosters will encounter some problems in the way of money for the project. However, all officers and directors have pledged full support for the plan.

Cincy Bearcat Cagers Resume Winning Habit

Queen City Quintet Cops Opener; Miami Falts in Its Start

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Cincinnati's Bearcats have taken up where they left off last season, but Miami of Ohio hasn't found it that easy.

Resuming the winning habit they momentarily dropped in the NCAA tournament this spring, the Bearcats rolled raggedly but thoroughly over Indiana State Monday night, 93-64.

With new fast-break tactics and all-America Oscar Robertson in a new pivot role, Cincinnati was in charge all the way. Oscar, 15 pounds heavier as he took the home floor for the first time this season, put his collegiate total over the 1,000-point mark with a 41-point effort.

But at Oxford, the defending Mid-American Conference champions from Miami fell behind early in the final period and lost to visiting Eastern Kentucky 78-73. Dale Moore of the Kentuckians poured in 29 points to lead scoring.

Steubenville's Barons, who tonight meet Mount St. Mary, the only team to beat them a year ago, decisively downed St. Michael's at Burlington, Vt., 81-63.

Elsewhere, a number of Ohio colleges took each other on.

Toledo built up a winning margin in the final five minutes to give a home crowd the pleasure of watching a 68-56 win over Baldwin-Wallace. Kent State did the same for the fans at Kent, but needed an overtime to down Youngstown 53-51.

Also successful on the home floor were Mount Union and Muskingum.

At Alliance, the Mounts fought off Geneva College of Pennsylvania 86-74, and at New Concord, Muskingum's Muskies made it no contest with an 84-41 rout of visiting Western Reserve.

Elsewhere, Findlay piled up the highest total of the night in pounding Malone College of Canton 116-60, and Wilberforce put down Bliss Business College of Columbus 83-79. At Pikeville, Ky., Pikeville College also broke the 100-mark with a 107-79 victory over Central State of Ohio.

Lastarza Comeback Effort Shattered

NEW YORK (AP) — It seemed so easy from the outside looking in. No more Rocky Marciano. The champion — heavyweight king Floyd Patterson — didn't appear two formidable. The contenders didn't seem much to beat.

So Roland Lastarza, still handsome and still hopeful at 31, decided to give it another try.

His boxing comeback may have opened and closed in one night.

The New Yorker, who was at one time the top challenger, was soundly beaten Monday night by Larry Zernitz, a plodding prospect from Springfield, Mass., in a 10-rounder at St. Nicholas Arena. The verdict was split, but ring-side critics agreed with the majority of officials that Zernitz, in scoring his sixth straight victory had won by a big margin.

Tom Marshall Succeeds Wanzer As Royals Coach

CINCINNATI (AP) — Bobby Wanzer, got his walking papers Monday as coach of the lackluster pro basketball Cincinnati Royals. He said, "I expected it."

"We were losing and there was nothing else that could be done. When it comes down to the final wire, you can't fire the ball players, so only one guy is expendable."

His successor is veteran Tom Marshall, 27-year-old Western Kentucky grad, and — in spurts — one of the team's best point-makers this season.

He inherits a team that has won only 3 of 18 games this season and is firmly in the Western Division cellar of the National Basketball Assn.

Wanzer, 35, is a former Seton Hall whiz who graduated to eight years of stardom with the Royals at Rochester, N. Y. He was in his fourth year as coach.

Browns Select Linemen in Draft

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Coach Paul Brown of the Cleveland Browns sought linemen and defensive backs in the National Football League's player draft. He ended up with five linemen.

"We had several players in mind as defensive backs, but they went before we got to them," Brown explained after Monday's draft.

All but one of Cleveland's picks were from the Western Conference. The choices were, in order of their pick, Rich Kreitling, Illinois end; Dick Shafraht, Ohio State tackle and end; Francis O'Brien, Michigan State tackle; Gary Praht, Michigan end; and Dave Lloyd, Georgia center.

"We had our fingers crossed that Rich Kreitling would last until our chance came," Brown said and added:

"Kreitling and Dick Shafraht were our top choices for their particular positions. I have only seen Kreitling on television but all our reports indicate he's a fine pass receiver. "Shafraht has played several spots in college, but we are thinking of him as an offensive guard. He's big and strong and growing. "We have known Gary Praht (of Berea) a long time. He has been to our camp and worked on summer conditioning with Lou Groza.

Praht, Brown continued, could be compared with End Jim Gibbons, traded by the Browns to the Detroit Lions.

"Gary was a track man and so he has speed," Brown said. "In fact," Brown concluded, "I believe he's faster than Gibbons."

Besides Shafraht, other Ohioans drafted Monday were:

Emil Karas, Dayton tackle, to Washington; Dan James, Ohio State center (first round choice from Pittsburgh), to San Francisco; Don Clark, Ohio State halfback, to Chicago Bears; Joe Morrison, Cincinnati halfback, to New York.

Local Booster Club Pushes Junior High Grid Program

Several important items of business were discussed when officers and directors of the Circleville Booster Club met last night in the home of Emmett Emerine, Dunkel Road.

Much of the discussion was centered on the Booster Club's plans to initiate a junior high school football program here next season.

CHS grid coach Tom Bennett, after completing a survey, reported that it would cost about $800 to outfit a team. The cost would be about $25 to dress one player.

President David (Red) Crawford said the local club already has gone on record with plans for sponsoring the program here, at least initially.

PRESENT plans call for the Booster Club to give the new grid program all possible financial backing. It probably will be a major project for the group when football season opens next fall.

At present it appears that the Boosters will encounter some problems in the way of money for the project. However, all officers and directors have pledged full support for the plan.

Investigation reveals that Circleville is far behind in the way of a junior high football program. Most schools in the South Central Ohio League already have such programs. The same is true for most other cities about the size of Circleville.

Club officers agreed that with the support of all loyal members and the public, the program here could be launched successfully.

Final plans were completed for the Booster Club's annual Spaghetti Dinner which will be held next Tuesday at the high school social rooms. Tickets may be purchased now from officers and directors or at the door. Serving will start at 5 and last until 7 p. m.

Additional tickets also were passed out for the portable television set which will be given away here this month.

Refreshments were served following the business meeting. The next session will be held January 5 in the home of Robert Shadley, 324 E. Mound St.

Kingston Paces Area Cage Teams

Kingston continued to lead area basketball scoring for the third straight week with a 60.8 average for five games.

The Redskins went down to their first defeat of the year to Williamsport Saturday night after racking up four consecutive wins. Second-ranked Centralia has a 58 point average per game and is just one game behind Kingston in the percentage column with a 3-1 slate.

Defensively, Stoutsville is the top quintet, holding its opponents to 42 points a game. Its record stands at 1-1. Behind the Indians defensively is Centralia with an average of 51.3 points per game allowed to the opposition.

Cincy Bearcat Cagers Resume Winning Habit

Queen City Quintet Cops Opener; Miami Falters in Its Start

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Cincinnati's Bearcats have taken up where they left off last season, but Miami of Ohio hasn't found it that easy.

Resuming the winning habit they momentarily dropped in the NCAA tournament this spring, the Bearcats rolled raggedly but thoroughly over Indiana State Monday night, 93-64.

With new fast-break tactics and all-America Oscar Robertson in a new pivot role, Cincinnati was in charge all the way. Oscar, 15 pounds heavier as he took the home floor for the first time this season, put his collegiate total over the 1,000-point mark with a 41-point effort.

But at Oxford, the defending Mid-American Conference champions from Miami fell behind early in the final period and lost to visiting Eastern Kentucky 78-73. Dale Moore of the Kentuckians poured in 29 points to lead scoring.

Steubenville's Barons, who tonight meet Mount St. Mary, the only team to beat them a year ago, decisively downed St. Michael's at Burlington, Vt., 81-63.

Elsewhere, a number of Ohio colleges took each other on.

Toledo built up a winning margin in the final five minutes to give a home crowd the pleasure of watching a 68-56 win over Baldwin-Wallace. Kent State did the same for the fans at Kent, but needed an overtime to down Youngstown 53-51.

Also successful on the home floor were Mount Union and Muskingum.

At Alliance, the Mounts fought off Geneva College of Pennsylvania 86-74, and at New Concord, Muskingum's Muskies made it no contest with an 84-44 rout of visiting Western Reserve.

Elsewhere, Findlay piled up the highest total of the night in pounding Malone College of Canton 116-60, and Wilberforce put down Bliss Business College of Columbus 83-79. At Pikeville, Ky., Pikeville College also broke the 100-mark with a 107-79 victory over Central State of Ohio.

OSU's New Basketball Coach Optimistic about Season

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State, buoyed by the confidence of a new coach and a promising future, opens its 1958-59 basketball campaign Wednesday night at Pittsburgh.

The new head mentor is youthful Fred Taylor, a 34-year-old optimist who says his Buckeyes will surprise a lot of people.

The experts, however, don't believe it. Ohio State already has been labeled the "weak sister" of the Big Ten.

Taylor, who succeeds Floyd Stahl at the helm, thinks differently and isn't afraid to say so.

"I'm doggone sure we'll prove them wrong on that weak-sister tag. We're more ready for this season than a lot of people think."

The good-looking coach who looks young enough to be mistaken for one of the players may have to eat crow before the season is over.

The varsity, though inexperienced, figures to have better speed than last year's team and good rebounding.

Returning starters are seniors Larry Huston of Savannah and Joe Carlson, the only out-of-state on the squad from Valley City, N. D.

Huston, who Taylor says has the best right-hand hook shot in the league, may be the Bucks' chief point-getter. The 6-7 center probably holds the key to Ohio hopes for a good season. Carlson, a spunky guard, has a good two-hand set shot and handles his playmaker role well.

Up front Taylor is banking on two Columbus products, juniors Dick Furry and Joe Roberts. Furry, 6-6, and Roberts, 6-5, saw considerable action last year. Both are strong rebounders.

Taylor speaks glowingly of his fifth man, soph Larry Siegfried of Shelby. The 6-3 Siegfried, an all-Olio selection in 1956, is strong, has tremendous potential and is a real good shooter.

"He could be as great as Robin Freeman," Taylor says emphatically.

Rated top replacements by Taylor are Richie Hoyt, a 6-4 soph forward from Mount Vernon; 6-5 Howard Nourse, a junior from Springfield who probably will spell Huston; guards Jim Niehaus of Hamilton and Dave Barker of Columbus; and Jim Ferrell, a 6-1 senior guard from Columbus South.

Others on the squad are John Cedargren and William Dodson, Columbus products, and Dick Hagdon, a senior from Grove City.

Ohio's home opener is Saturday against a strong St. Louis team and Western Conference competition begins Jan. 3 at Illinois.

Maurice Connell Gets No. 2 Post in DiSalle Officialdom

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Maurice J. Connell, a graying personable 43-year-old bachelor, will be the No. 2 man of the DiSalle administration in the Ohio capital.

Gov.-elect Miahcel V. DiSalle today named Connell to the post of assistant to the governor, effective on inauguration day, Jan. 12.

The appointment, first to be announced by the state's first four-year governor-to-be, came in the midst of a two-day round of receptions, dinners and luncheons with DiSalle as host.

Other major appointments — those of state department directors — still are a week to 10 days away, DiSalle told newsmen. He added, however, that his own personal staff in the governor's office will be somewhat smaller than the staff employed by Republican Gov. C. William O'Neill at a total annual salary of $58,000.

Today, DiSalle is entertaining Ohio's 88 Democratic county chairmen and more than 150 members of the Democratic state central and executive committees. A luncheon conference, an afternoon discussion, and a dinner meeting are on tap.

It also was a get-acquainted session. Newly elected Democratic state officials and congressmen were on deck to meet the state's political leaders.

Mr. and Mrs. DiSalle entertained about 50 Ohio newsmen and their wives Monday night at a reception and dinner.

Connell, whose job it will be to take much of the routine load off DiSalle's back, has worked with the governor-elect for a number of years.

He was administrative assistant to DiSalle while the governor-elect was federal price administrator during a 15-month period of the Korean conflict. Later, he was active on the committee in DiSalle's unsuccessful bid for the U. S. Senate in 1952.

In 1956, Connell was coordinator of DiSalle's first campaign for the governor's chair.

This year, Connell was executive director of the DiSalle for Governor Campaign Committee.

Connell is a brother of Lucas County Common Pleas Judge Geraldine Macelwane, the only woman to occupy that bench in the history of the county.

Cleveland Drafts 6-Foot-5 Slugger From Class A Loop

WASHINGTON (AP)—A 6-foot-5 outfielder, Dale Bennett, who hit 22 homers and batted .232 for Williamsport in the Class A Eastern League last season, was the Cleveland Indians' first choice in Monday's drafting of minor league players by major league clubs.

The Tribe's second pick was Ray Webster, a shortstop recommended by Indians' manager Joe Gordon and a .244 hitter for Sacramento in the Pacific Coast League last summer.

The 23-year-old outfielder and 21-year-old shortstop cost Cleveland $25,000 each.

Bennett, a left-handed batter, knocked in 102 runs for Williamsport, but also set a league strike-out record of 112 in 124 games.

Gordon said he saw Webster "quite a bit early last season and I like him a lot. I like his bat mainly. In the field I'd say he is about on a par with Billy Moran, but he will outlast Moran."

Army Giving Eye To OKing Play in Bowls of Future

NEW YORK (AP) — Since the other service academies have established a precedent by accepting invitations to play in football bowl games, Army may be next — when the time is ripe.

The Associated Press has learned from an informed source that influential elements in the Army would like to see the military academy reverse its stand against post-season games.

Army, sought by bowl committees on various occasions, has discouraged such advances in the past. Before the Cadets completed their unbeaten 1958 season, West Point officials made it clear they would not accept an invitation this year.

Navy played bowl games after its 1954 and 1957 seasons. The Air Force Academy, tied but undefeated this year, accepted an invitation to play Texas Christian in the Cotton Bowl.

Cleveland Drafts 6-Foot-5 Slugger From Class A Loop

WASHINGTON (AP)—A 6-foot-5 outfielder, Dale Bennett, who hit 22 homers and batted .232 for Williamsport in the Class A Eastern League last season, was the Cleveland Indians' first choice in Monday's drafting of minor league players by major league clubs.

The Tribe's second pick was Ray Webster, a shortstop recommended by Indians' manager Joe Gordon and a 244 hitter for Sacramento in the Pacific Coast League last summer.

The 23-year-old outfielder and 21-year-old shortstop cost Cleveland $25,000 each.

Bennett, a left-handed batter, knocked in 102 runs for Williamsport, but also set a league strike-out record of 112 in 124 games.

Gordon said he saw Webster "quite a bit early last season and I like him a lot. I like his bat mainly. In the field I'd say he is about on a par with Billy Moran, but he will outlast Moran."

Army Giving Eye To OKing Play in Bowls of Future

NEW YORK (AP) — Since the other service academies have established a precedent by accepting invitations to play in football bowl games, Army may be next — when the time is ripe.

The Associated Press has learned from an informed source that influential elements in the Army would like to see the military academy reverse its stand against post-season games.

Army, sought by bowl committees on various occasions, has discouraged such advances in the past. Before the Cadets completed their unbeaten 1958 season, West Point officials made it clear they would not accept an invitation this year.

Navy played bowl games after its 1954 and 1957 seasons. The Air Force Academy, tied but undefeated this year, accepted an invitation to play Texas Christian in the Cotton Bowl.

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — That old Nikita Khrushchev. American taxpayers ought to be good and mad at him. If he'd just act nice, if he'd just quiet down— But no. He keeps acting up and costing us money.

Here was President Eisenhower saying just about a month ago—and very firmly too—that in his last two years in office he'd fight as hard as he could to keep down federal spending.

That was Nov. 5, the day after the elections. Eisenhower wasn't happy about the election returns. But he said the Democrats the voters chose were spenders, and "that is what I say is going to be the real trouble."

As for himself, he said this: "For the next two years, the Lord spare me, I am going to fight this (spending) as hard as I know how, and if we don't, I just say that, well, in the long run, everybody else that is responsible has got to fight it."

Since this year government spending is running around 80 billion dollars, and the Defense Department is spending just about half the 80 billion, what place seemed more likely for real economy than that department?

And maybe Eisenhower and his advisers thought some cuts could be made there. But then old Premier Khrushchev started cutting up again, talking about getting the Allies out of Berlin.

He sounded so mean about it, and so insistent, that the United States can't at this minute know what it's in for, or how rough things will get, but it does know it can't afford to take chances with defense.

Secretary of Defense Neil H. McElroy visited Eisenhower last week in Georgia. McElroy is a dutiful subordinate. He knows Eisenhower wants economy, and apparently McElroy had been looking every which way to save a penny.

But when he got all through talking to Eisenhower, McElroy talked to newsmen and he said, first, it would be pretty rough trying to keep defense spending down to this year's level of nearly 41 billion dollars.

And then, second, he indicated that next year his department might have to increase, not decrease, its spending and wind up shoveling out a billion dollars more than this year.

So where is Eisenhower going to practice the economy he pledged himself to? In foreign aid? Probably not. And no wonder.

The Eisenhower administration itself has tentatively put together a foreign aid package calling for $4,200,000,000 to $4,300,000,000 for the fiscal year starting next July 1. That, too, would be a billion dollars more than the $3,300,000,000 Congress voted this year.

It was the Democrats whom Eisenhower labeled the spenders. But even before those Democrats have a chance to take their seats in the new Congress, the Eisenhower administration is talking of spending more money than last year in the two vital areas of defense and foreign aid.

It looks as if not only McElroy but Eisenhower too is going to have a pretty rough time keeping down expenses, although Eisenhower has dedicated his remaining years in office to economy.

Boy, 11, Heads for Logan For Perhaps 'Last' Christmas

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—An 11-year-old boy left here by plane early today to go home to Logan, Ohio, to spend what doctors say may be his last Christmas.

Brown-haired Kenneth Ucker, dying of a malignant tumor in his abdomen, had expressed a desire to return to Logan where he has lived most of his life.

His mother, Mrs. Charlene Ucker, 29, accompanied her son on the plane trip.

Friends of the Ucker family in Logan, 50 miles southeast of Columbus, collected money for the plane fare and plan a welcome for Kenneth at the end of the 15-hour journey. Greeters will include Kenneth's pals in his old Cub Scout pack and his former teammates on a Logan little league team. He was a pitcher on the team.

Kenneth and his mother will be met in Columbus by an ambulance which will transport him to Logan. Their plane is due to arrive in Columbus at 3:15 p.m. (EST).

Mrs. Ucker said that Kenneth became listless and complained of stomach pains about a month ago. "I thought he was just homesick," she said. "He hated for us to leave Logan."

Kenneth was examined and, three weeks ago, an exploratory operation revealed the tumor. A physician said the cancerous growth, unusual in a child so young, was inoperable.

The Uckers came to San Diego last August. Before coming here the family had spent a short time in Jackson Hole, Wyo.

When Kenneth entered the hospital for the exploratory operation Mrs. Ucker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mc Minnis of Logan, came here to care for the other child, Martin, 3.

Kenneth's father, Paul, a lino type operator on a weekly news paper, hopes to join his wife and son in Logan during the Christmas holidays.

Slick Thief

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Wilton Wahl was fed up with the thief who was stealing archery equipment from his car. He planned an ambush.

First he put some bows and arrows in the front seat. Then he put his watchdog in the back seat. He then climbed to the roof of his house to get a clear view of the scene. Several hours passed but Wahl could see no burglar. He climbed down and found: His bows and arrows gone, his dog resting comfortably.

PRAISE THE LORD AND PASS—Here is Maurice Dale Tullock, 50, former Baptist minister, working as a shill (gambling stimulator) in the Golden Gate casino in Las Vegas, Nev., two months after disappearing from a religious conference in Kansas. He was a minister for 18 years, and left his Sabatha, Kan., home to "get away from my wife," he said. His pay is $4 a day. He thus ended 25 years of domesticity.

TB Christmas Seal Sale Hits $1,734

The Tuberculosis Christmas Seal Sale has received $1,734.35 to date, it was reported today by the Pickaway County Tuberculosis and Health Assn.

The campaign's goal has been set at $6,000. Chairman of the Tuberculosis Sale, Rev. Carl G. Zehner, stated that returns are coming in rather slow this year.

Among the programs sponsored and furnished by the local Tuberculosis Assn. is the public chest X-ray. During the coming year the Association hopes to sponsor, through the schools, a tuberculosis skin test for children.

The money derived from the sale of Christmas seals is used to pay for the annual X-ray survey, rehabilitation of tuberculosis patients and health, education and research of this dreaded disease.

THE Christmas Seal X-ray cruiser will be here December 12 and 13, and in Ashville on December 11.

The hours for the Ashville survey are 10 a. m. till noon; 1 p. m. until 5 p. m., and from 7 until 9 p. m. December 11.

The Circleville hours for the cruiser are 10:30 a. m. until 1 p. m.; 2 p. m. till 5 p. m., and from 7 until 9:30 p. m. December 11 and 12.

The public is invited to have a free chest X-ray during these hours. All food handlers are required to have an annual chest X-ray.

The Tuberculosis Assn. is limiting the age to 15 years and over because of the difficulty checking small children's X-rays. Children who are cafeteria workers in the schools will be given a checkup upon identification.

For additional information on any of the above matter, residents are asked to contact Mrs. Evelyn Hafey, Executive Secretary of the Tuberculosis Assn. at P. O. Box 321, or by phoning GR 4-5786.

Accident Report

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—More California workers are injured in accidents involving stationary vehicles than moving vehicles, the State Division of Industrial Safety reports.

The division's statistics show that during 1957 one out of every nine injuries to workers involved motor vehicles. Of 17, 141 injuries involving vehicles, 8,854, or about 52 per cent, occurred on stationary vehicles.

The large majority of vehicles-at-rest injuries were found to occur during loading and unloading and getting on and off.

Columbus Man Jailed for A&B

Robie Evans Jr., 27, Columbus, this morning in Pickaway County Common Pleas Court pleaded guilty to a reduced charge of assault and battery and received a sentence of 60 days in the County Jail and a $100 fine and costs.

Evans was indicted by the September term of the county grand jury for rape of a 27-year-old Columbus woman. He pleaded innocent to this charge and employed the services of a Columbus attorney for his defense.

County Prosecutor Ray W. Davis this morning recommended the rape charge be reduced to A and B and the court agreed. Presiding Judge William Ammer took into consideration that Evans has been confined in jail here for approximately six months.

Maximum sentence for this charge is six months in jail and $200 and costs.

Auto Makers Call '58 'Worst Year

By DAVID J. WILKIE
A.P. Automotive Writer
DETROIT (AP) — For all but one of the nation's auto makers 1958 was the worst year in recent automotive industry history.

It was a year that saw a decline of more than 1 1/2 million car assemblies and a retail sales drop of nearly 1 1/2 million units from the preceding year's volume. The year brought losses or profit cuts for all makers except American Motors.

American Motors, riding high on a bulging demand for smaller, lower priced cars, built and sold nearly twice as many vehicles in 1958 as it did the preceding year.

When the 1958 production and sales are finally tabulated they probably will come to nearly 4 1/2 million domestic car assemblies and about 4,780,000 retail deliveries. The latter figure would include about 300,000 imported car sales.

For the year ahead sales are expected to number 5 1/2 million U. S. cars plus up to 400,000 imported cars.

Outstanding events of 1958 included:

Expiration of union labor contracts and months-long negotiations leading to new agreements. Top-heavy inventories that brought sharp production cutbacks and were further leveled off by work stoppages that followed the new labor agreements.

Sharp criticism of car styling that brought some hurried last minute changes for 1959.

Continuing rise in the demand for smaller, lower priced cars.

Ahead for 1959 undoubtedly is a better year for the car makers. Predictions of a sales volume in excess of 6 1/2 million cars come from nonautomotive economists who sprinkle a liberal number of "ifs" in their appraisals. Major stimulation, of course, is the availability of expendable income. Another is the appeal of substantially altered styling.

The cars that were criticized as too gaudy in 1958 are making less lavish use of bright trim generally. But already there has been some criticism of cars too long and too wide among 1959 models.

More smaller, lower priced American-built cars undoubtedly are coming.

TB Christmas Seal Sale Hits $1,734

The Tuberculosis Christmas Seal Sale has received $1,734.35 to date, it was reported today by the Pickaway County Tuberculosis and Health Assn.

The campaign's goal has been set at $6,000. Chairman of the Tuberculosis Sale, Rev. Carl G. Zehner, stated that returns are coming in rather slow this year.

Among the programs sponsored and furnished by the local Tuberculosis Assn. is the public chest X-ray. During the coming year the Association hopes to sponsor, through the schools, a tuberculosis skin test for children.

The money derived from the sale of Christmas seals is used to pay for the annual X-ray survey, rehabilitation of tuberculosis patients and health, education and research of this dreaded disease.

THE Christmas Seal X-ray cruiser will be here December 12 and 13, and in Ashville on December 11.

The hours for the Ashville survey are 10 a. m. till noon; 1 p. m. until 5 p. m., and from 7 until 9 p. m. December 11.

The Circleville hours for the cruiser are 10:30 a. m. until 1 p. m.; 2 p. m. till 5 p. m., and from 7 until 9:30 p. m. December 11 and 12.

The public is invited to have a free chest X-ray during these hours. All food handlers are required to have an annual chest X-ray.

The Tuberculosis Assn. is limiting the age to 15 years and over because of the difficulty checking small children's X-rays. Children who are cafeteria workers in the schools will be given a checkup upon identification.

For additional information on any of the above matter, residents are asked to contact Mrs. Evelyn Hafey, Executive Secretary of the Tuberculosis Assn. at P. O. Box 321, or by phoning GR 4-5786.

Accident Report

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — More California workers are injured in accidents involving stationary vehicles than moving vehicles, the State Division of Industrial Safety reports.

The division's statistics show that during 1957 one out of every nine injuries to workers involved motor vehicles. Of 17, 141 injuries involving vehicles, 8,854, or about 52 per cent, occurred on stationary vehicles.

The large majority of vehicles-at-rest injuries were found to occur during loading and unloading and getting on and off.

Boy, 11, Heads for Logan For Perhaps 'Last' Christmas

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—An 11-year-old boy left here by plane early today to go home to Logan, Ohio, to spend what doctors say may be his last Christmas.

Brown-haired Kenneth Ucker, dying of a malignant tumor in his abdomen, had expressed a desire to return to Logan where he has lived most of his life.

His mother, Mrs. Charlene Ucker, 29, accompanied her son on the plane trip.

Friends of the Ucker family in Logan, 50 miles southeast of Columbus, collected money for the plane fare and plan a welcome for Kenneth at the end of the 15-hour journey. Greeters will include Kenneth's pals in his old Cub Scout pack and his former teammates on a Logan little league team. He was a pitcher on the team.

Kenneth and his mother will be met in Columbus by an ambulance which will transport him to Logan. Their plane is due to arrive in Columbus at 3:15 p.m. (EST).

Mrs. Ucker said that Kenneth became listless and complained of stomach pains about a month ago. "I thought he was just homesick," she said. "He hated for us to leave Logan."

Kenneth was examined and, three weeks ago, an exploratory operation revealed the tumor. A physician said the cancerous growth, unusual in a child so young, was inoperable.

The Uckers came to San Diego last August. Before coming here the family had spent a short time in Jackson Hole, Wyo.

When Kenneth entered the hospital for the exploratory operation Mrs. Ucker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mc Minnis of Logan, came here to care for the other child, Martin, 3.

Kenneth's father, Paul, a lino-type operator on a weekly news paper, hopes to join his wife and son in Logan during the Christmas holidays.

Slick Thief

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Wilton Wahl was fed up with the thief who was stealing archery equipment from his car. He planned an ambush.

First he put some bows and arrows in the front seat. Then he put his watchdog in the back seat. He then climbed to the roof of his house to get a clear view of the scene. Several hours passed but Wahl could see no burglar. He climbed down and found: His bows and arrows gone, his dog resting comfortably.

He was a minister for 18 years, and left his Sabatha, Kan., home to "get away from my wife," he said. His pay is $8 a day. He thus ended 25 years of domesticity.
